The Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance!

Are You Ready for a Renaissance?!

The Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance is THIS SATURDAY, May 10th, and we can't wait to see you! We know you've got questions about the evening and we have some tips to help you prepare for an incredible night!

Still need tickets? Become an Agent of Ingenuity and secure your VIP tickets to this weekend's Bal, plus receive weekend passes to IngenuityFest 2025 and more! If you can't make it to the festival and only want tickets to the Bal, be sure to SECURE YOUR TICKETS NOW as prices will increase to $55 at NOON on Saturday!

Know Before You Go!

The Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance is sure to be a magical evening filled with fire, sparks & the Tesla Orchestra, metal arts, music and dancing, hands-on demonstrations from IngenuityLabs Incubator members, hors d'oeuvres, craft cocktails and so much more!

Here is everything we think you should know to make the most of your evening:

When and where is the Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance?

The Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance is Saturday, May 10th from 7:00PM to midnight at IngenuityLabs, 5401 Hamilton Ave, Cleveland OH 44114.

Can I purchase tickets at the door?

Yes! Tickets to the Bal will be available at the door for $55 each and we will accept cash or credit card.

Where should I park?

Free street parking is plentiful in the area surrounding IngenuityLabs, or there will be parking offered first-come first-serve in our paid lot available for $10 on the south side of Hamilton Avenue, directly across from the event entrance. This lot will be staffed but please remember that parking is at your own risk. We highly encourage carpooling/rideshares!

Accessible parking spots will be available on the north side of Hamilton Avenue. If you require assistance finding an accessible parking spot or entering the event, please call 216-589-9444 and follow the prompts.

Please note: For our guest coming from the West, please be aware that the exit ramp onto East 55th is closed. The best routing is to take the South Marginal Road exit and approach IngenuityLabs from the North via East 49th, but your GPS should show you the way!

What time should I arrive?

The Bal starts at 7:00PM, but if you run with the "fashionably late" crowd, there is terrific programming all night long! For those arriving around 8:30PM, you'll arrive just in time to catch Uno Lady, Tesla Orchestra, Manow Violin and Abbey Studor, and more!

Hands-on activities and cabaret programming runs at staggered intervals throughout the evening . . . On the move later at night? Our complimentary dessert bar will keep you fueled up and dancing to LOLO KNOWS from 10:30 pm 'till late.

What should I wear?

Still stressing about your costume? Don't let that stop you! The Bal is a costumed event and we encourage you to get creative, but don't be intimidated! To us, the Rust Belt Renaissance is all about the intersection of tradition and innovation, drawing on themes from the Venetian Carnival, Renaissance period, and Cleveland's notorious Kokoon Klub, which dominated modernist arts in the city from the 1910s until the 1940.

People will wear everything from all-out extravagant to dressy and fun - a reminder that anything goes! As long as you feel comfy and a bit unique, we're excited to have you (not like the Kokoon Klub, who'd kick you out if your costume wasn't wild enough!) Check out the Rust Belt Renaissance Facebook Event for some of our "What to Wear Wednesday" costume inspiration!

Not sure how to accessorize? We've got you! You'll have the opportunity to create your own Venetian mask, metal-stamped jewelry, and more at the Bal!

Please note: IngenuityLabs is a working industrial artist space which can mean areas of uneven floors, low lighting and a light coating of "creative stardust" - please wear practical footwear and leave your most treasured, delicate pieces at home!

Is the Bal family-friendly?

The Bal is a 21+ event, so the littles should stay home. We can't wait to see them at IngenuityFest 2025, taking place September 26-28!

Will there be food/drinks?

Yes! Hors d'oeuvres, small bites, and desserts are included in all ticket types! Enjoy a variety of fired artisan flatbreads and local delicacies by Farmer's Feast, charcuterie spread by Elizabeth Wadsworth, and an amazing dessert bar with coffee from Gypsy Bean and featured small bites from Cake Drama, Gordon Square's newest Brick and Mortar opening in summer of '25! Don't forget to stop by the bars to enjoy a craft cocktail by Moon Bunny Libations with Watershed Distillery spirits or a Goldhorn

Brewery beer! Bars will accept cash and credit cards.

Will there be additional ways to support Ingenuity's year-round efforts?

YES! Be sure to stop by the Silent Auction table at the Bal for your chance to win incredible experiences, including an Exclusive Pair of Burning Man Tickets (no lottery or pre-registration required - get your sure-fire guaranteed pass to Black Rock City) and other incredible prizes! Plus, if you're having a great time, be sure to keep an eye out on all of the tables for QR code where you can donate!

Can I bring my pet to the Bal?

IngenuityLabs is not pet friendly and we kindly ask that all pet's stay home for everyone's safety and comfort. The Bal takes place indoors and the space can become quite loud and crowded.

Did we miss anything? If you have any additional questions, please reach out to info@ingenuitycleveland.org.
