Are You Ready for a Renaissance?!

Join us Saturday, May 10th at 7pm at IngenuityLabs for our annual Ingenuity Bal and fundraiser! The Ingenuity Bal: Rust Belt Renaissance will celebrate Ingenuity's 2025 season of programming with a return to our roots! Join us to honor the rich heritage of manufacturing, industry, and innovation amid rebirth and revitalization in our St. Clair Superior home!

Dust off your doublets, ball gowns, breeches, and finest carnival masks for an elegant evening featuring fire, sparks & the Tesla Orchestra, metal arts, music and dancing, hands-on demonstrations from IngenuityLabs Incubator members, hors d'oeuvres, craft cocktails and more!

The annual Ingenuity Bal is a slightly off-kilter fundraising gala, supporting Ingenuity's year-round programming! Once known as the Bal Ingenieux, the event pays homage to Cleveland's exclusive arts club that dominated modernist arts in the city from the 1910s until the 1940s. The Kokoon Club's annual "Bal Masque" challenged artistic norms with the most unconventional parties around.
