Don't Miss the Ingenuity Bal: Flights of Fancy!

This costumed extravaganza is not to be missed! The Ingenuity Bal: Flights of Fancy is just over 1 week away, and you'll definitely want to be in on the action! Join us on Saturday, May 4th at IngenuityLabs for an inspired evening in support of Ingenuity Cleveland and our 20th anniversary season that is sure to lift your spirits!

The evening will feature live music with headlining performances from Bassel and the Supernaturals, jazz classics from Jessie Cope Miller and Ken Lear, and all your favorite tunes from DJ and host Aaron Terkel. For those looking to be entirely transported, enjoy ambient downtempo beats and 360° visuals in the immersive Cloudscape Lounge. Experience projections by artist Kevin Jackson with an all-night dance party by Justin Hartman, Eric Kilbourn, and JFO!

Plus, don't miss cirque and aerial acts by Crooked River Circus (OR... try your hand at taking flight along side the professionals), and the Fashion Rock Project Fashion Show hosted by Haute Ohio Magazine & Hammertime Productions!

The evening includes small bites and hors d'oeuvres by Farmers Feast, hand mixed beverages from Moon Bunny Libations with craft spirits by Watershed Distillery & Goldhorn Brewery, sneak-peeks at in-progress festival installations, and so much more!

Each year the Bal offers hands-on experiences from our talented IngenuityLabs Makers and beyond, and this year will be no exception! Dress up in your vintage or aeronautical best and learn to solder with the Makers Alliance, weld with the Fire Guys, stamp personalized metal jewelry with Morgan and accessorize your flight-worthy fit at our DIY costume bar with CandiBee Parties!

Be sure to secure your tickets in advance as prices will increase on the day of the event! General admission tickets start at just $35, or become an Agent of Ingenuity ($150/single, $200/pair) and confirm your spot at all of our signature events in 2024!
