Know Before You Go!

The Bal: Biotique is sure to be a magical evening full of music, performances, entertainment, festival sneak-peeks, hands-on demonstrations, tasty bites, craft bevs, and more! Here are some more logistical things you might be curious about.

Where is the Bal: Biotique?

The Bal: Biotique will be held at IngenuityLabs located at 5401 Hamilton Avenue, Cleveland OH 44114.

Where will I park?

The parking will be immediately south of Hamilton Avenue, across from the event entrance. The parking lot is well lit and should come right up when you use your GPS to find 5401 Hamilton Ave.

Parking is free and first come first serve and should accommodate most, if not all attendees, but there is also ample street parking. We will also have a parking lot attendant, but do please remember that all parking is at your own risk.

What time should I arrive?

The Bal runs from 7pm-midnight, but if you run with the "fashionably late" crowd, we recommend arriving between 8-8:30 so that you can catch all of our fabulous performances including Nathan Paul & the Admirables, Wave Magnetik & Rowanne Atallah, Crooked River Circus, Viva Dance Studio, Dr. Dan's Circus Fun and more!

What should I wear?

The Bal is a costumed event and you may have seen us asking you to "don your biological best" (flora-and-fauna-inspired clothing or cocktail attire). We encourage you to get creative and draw inspiration from anything found in nature, ie: plants, animals, insects, critters/creatures, crystals, etc. Still not quite sure? Don't worry! Our crafty IngenuityLabs members will be hosting a costume bar at the Bal for you to DIY some biological accessories and flair!

*Please note: IngenuityLabs is a working industrial artist space which can mean areas of uneven floors, low lighting and a light coating of "creative stardust" - please wear practical footwear and leave your most treasured, delicate garb at home*

Is the Bal family-friendly?

The Bal is a 21+ event, so the littles should stay home. We can't wait to see them at IngenuityFest 2023: Biologies & Geologies - taking place September 22-24!

Will there be food/drinks?

Yes! The Bal will feature a variety of hors d'oeuvres from local food entrepreneurs including Ninja City, Ohio City Pasta, Chutni Punch, Saroj & Carlos (Formerly Farmer's Feast at Bottlehouse), and Cleveland Bagel Co., and craft drinks from our fabulous beer and liquor sponsors, Goldhorn Brewery and Watershed Distillery!

Can I bring my pet to the Bal?

While this year's theme celebrates animals and creatures of all kinds, IngenuityLabs is not pet friendly. The Bal takes place indoors and the space can become quite loud and crowded. Please leave all pets at home with the exception of registered service animals.
