LOTTERY LEAGUE DRAFT

SATURDAY, APRIL 13

(BIG SHOW MMXXIV: JUNE 8)

Lottery League Draft at IngenuityLabs!

Looking to see Cleveland's music scene in a whole new light? We're so thrilled to host the return of our area's most unique triennial music event, Lottery League! Stop by IngenuityLabs this Saturday, April 13th for the Lottery League Draft! Created in 2007, the Lottery League is a project that brings together over 160 musicians from the Cleveland and Akron music scenes, spanning all genres, instrumentation, gender, age, and ethnicity. On Draft Night, the musicians are drafted into 4-piece bands through a process that ensures no player has collaborated previously with any other player in their new lineup. Newly formed bands are then given two months to develop their band's identity and sound, culminating with a 10-minute performance of original music that they perform live at the Big Show.

Plus! Save the date for the Big Show MMXXIV, held Saturday, June 8th at IngenuityLabs. Lottery League is free to attend and all are welcome!
