We are thrilled to announce that IngenuityFest will return on September 23-25, 2022 as Expo: Ingenuity! Around the globe, Expos have offered the chance to gather around new ideas and pressing challenges, highlighting extraordinary feats of human imagination and, at their best, bringing people together and bridging gaps between citizens, companies, governments & organizations.

And, just like Cleveland's own Great Lakes Exposition, which nearly a hundred years ago helped draw Cleveland out of the Great Depression with a burst of energy, Expos can offer the chance to foster civic and regional pride, attract visitors, and provide much-needed celebration in the midst of recovery from challenging years. Will you join us?
