We're shouting Hip Hooray! for fun in the sun all summer long with our friends at The Cleveland Metroparks/CHEERS study, Famicos Foundation, Bike Cleveland, and St. Clair-Superior Development. We'll be popping up at the Glenville Summer Series, helping bring awareness to a wave of new planning along the shore from East 55th to East 72nd, supporting efforts to build Safe Routes to Parks, plus capping it all off with an Ingenuity at the Lake celebration on Ingenuity's favorite weekend of the year - September 24-26. That's right, IngenuityFest is ON! It looks a little different this year, but we think it's a great kind of different, and we can't wait to see you there!
